MOST FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: If I write in a requested effective date, will you honor my request?

A: Your requested effective date will be honored if an acceptable, signed application and the full gross annual premium payment is received by IAS, Inc within 5 days of the requested effective date.

Q: If only one answers falls into the next rating tier, do I have to rate the entire risk in that tier?

A: Yes, the entire risk would be rated in the highest tier.

Q: Will RLI write a personal umbrella over a farmowners policy?

A: Yes, they will unless the farm is a commercial farm. Coverage for real farm exposures, equipment and staff are limited. The policy intent is for a true "gentleman farm," tomatoes in back yard type risk.

Q: How do I submit my application for issuance of a policy?A: There are two ways to submit business:

1. Email signed application to your agency Underwriter followed by a phone call to the Underwriter with payment information via credit card or ACH. Coverage cannot be bound sooner than the date payment is received.
2. Choose eSignature in signature option on the online application and the application will be emailed to the applicant to electronically sign and pay for.

Q: Is the entire risk disqualified if they own a watercraft that is over 45' long and/or has a maximum speed of over 50 mph?

A: The entire risk is not disqualified but that watercraft will be excluded from coverage and should not be counted in the rating questions on the application.

New Business Applications cannot be mailed directly to RLI and must be submitted through a Program Administrator. Applications that are sent directly to RLI will be forwarded back to the State Program Administrator and may delay your policy effective date.
